What is the Verdict?

Anybody can afford to own a cyclopedia now.—Press. Ellenville, N. Y.

We can only repeat gur hearty commendation of a scheme which places in the hands of the people the best literature at a merely nominal price.—Tesefer. Boston.

The day of cheap and good books is once more with us, and the American Book Exchange merits the praise for it.—Episcopal Register, Philadelphia, Penn.

His some rich relative left you a coloreal fortune which you are spending in publishing books for the people at nominal prices! If so, I admire your taste. But won't the old-line publishers be glad when it is gone—B. F. Concoros, Islandolph, N. Y.

At these rates any man may, and every man should, have a library.—The Allianse, Chicago, Ill.

Is doing won lers in book-making. A few dollars will purchase a good isbrary. W. prosounce them the best books for the money that ever came to our notice.—The Workings, Boston.

It is a matter of wonder how such books, in firm binding with good paper and good type, can be offered at such a price.—The Standard, Chicago, Ill.

It is a mystery which we will not attempt to explain how the American Book Exchange can afford to publish such a remarkably cheap series of books. Other publishers may be inclined to sneer at them, but so long as the Exchange publishes a book at one-tenth the cost at which it is offered elsewhere, sneers cannot hurt them.—Corisedournal, Louisville, Ky.

We have heretofore given generous notices of this work, because we believe we are doing a favor to our readers in so doing.—Herald, Utica, Ohio.

It entirely obliterates the excuse offered by many who really want a good encyclepedia, but are unable to get one of the expensive editions. Quite a number of our readers are subscribers for it, and express themselves highly pleased.—These. Cochranton, Penn.

We know of no publication of recent date that deserves so large a share of public encouragement as this one.—Sunday Chronicle, Washington, D. C.

The American Book Exchange is doing a very remarkable work in the reproduction of its

The character of this marvelously low work is too well known to need much elaboration of its merits.—Telegraph, Pittsburgh.

They are well printed and bound. Their form is vastly more convenient than the usual unwieldy quarto or octay, and their price is cheap beyond all precedent in bould-making.—Swaday Capital, Columbus, Onio.

It has been prepared with the greatest diligence and abith, and the inerary graces which have been lavished upon it makes its longer articles pleasant as well as the roughly instructive and trustworthy studies. Nothing teems to have been confitted, and e-pecially in the scientific, biggraph cal, and historical articles, everything is orought up to the very latest date. Chambers's, in fact, is the cheapest, the most complete, and in all senses the best encyclopedia.—Sawarday Night Cincinnati, 1880.

It has given me creat pleasure to recommend your noble enterprise throughout Virginia. Your names will have to stand with those of Howard, Cobden, Nightingale, Morse, Fulton, and Edison, as reformers of the nine-teenth century.—R. S. Barrier, Richmon., Va.

The books are received. I am well pleased with them. Your company is worth more to the common people than the Peabody Fund. It makes me feet good to look at your chiadogue. You deserve the praises of all classes of the peopl:—Z. B. Warser, Yadkin Coblege, North Carolina.

Thousands of biessings on the man who invented printing, thousands more for him who uses that invention for the benefit of himself of the fellow-countrymen. The books which I have received from you are wonderful volumes for the money.—D. B. Consising, Pastor Congregational Church, whitewater, Wis.
